

3ie-supported formative evaluations

The Vaccine Indicator and Reminder band, Pakistan

The study will assess the effect of encouraging community engagement and mobilisation for the distribution of VIR bands to infants.

Read more

Collaborative immunisation quality checklists, Myanmar

This formative evaluation tests a new approach to educate and involve communities in the provision of immunisation services in rural Myanmar.

Read more

International Rescue Committee's Fifth Child community engagement strategy, Ethiopia

This formative evaluation assesses IRC's Fifth Child integrated community engagement strategy as a potential solution to the problem of low and stagnating immunisation coverage in Ethiopia.

Read more

Vaccine Indicator and Reminder Bands, Nigeria

The study will assess the feasibility of community-based distribution of VIR bands to infants in Nigeria.

Read more

Community health strategy, Kenya

This formative study will assess the community health strategy (CHS) targeted at marginalised communities, primarily comprising pastoral and nomadic communities in Kenya.

Read more

Participatory evaluation and action research, Nigeria

This study assesses the Reach Every Ward approach for improving routine vaccination coverage in a province of Nigeria.

Read more

Health Development Army network, Ethiopia

This study assesses the effects of extending the government of Ethiopia's HDA network to pastoral communities.

Read more